

Writing Rubric

Trait	Writing Content
Ideas and Development	Clear message, intriguing details, relevant details to support the main idea
Organization	Beginning catches the reader, logically organized, appropriate transitions, closing ties ideas together
Voice	Appropriate use of tone for the purpose, reflects the writer's style, writing style keeps the readers' attention
Word Choice	Interesting, specific, vivid words or phrases, appropriate words to convey meaning, vocabulary suits the topic and audience
Sentence Fluency	Sentences flow together well, begin in different ways, vary in length and type
Presentation	Appropriate form, neatly presented, visually appealing
Conventions	Correct grammar, punctuation, conventional spelling, and sentence structure

